Why we need your personal information

The College often gets asked why we have to collect so much information from our students.

The courses that the College runs receive a subsidy, with the size of the subsidy varying according to the type of programme and the priorities of the Government that academic year.

As the courses are subsidised we are required to submit data on a regular basis so that the Government can ensure that access is made for all who wish to benefit. Specific categories that are monitored include age, gender, disability declared and also ethnicity.

We do need students to complete the declarations when you enrol to help avoid visiting and disrupting classes asking for additional information.

Using our new online enrolment system will mean that most of the information we are required to collect is only entered once by yourselves so this will avoid any unnecessary duplication or errors.

Please continue to help us by declaring information when required. It is much appreciated.

Yours,

Jenny Sims, Principal

Festival of Learning

To celebrate the Festival of Learning (previously Adult Learners' Week) we have a range of free taster courses on offer as part of the national celebration of lifelong learning and the 'Have a Go' learning events taking place during May and June around the UK.

The courses are available at the College's main Sutton centre (next to Sutton library) from Saturday 11th June through til Friday 17th June.

See the website for full information!

Arts & Crafts Exhibition

Students from our arts and crafts courses have chosen their own pieces of fantastic work to be shown in an exhibition in the Europa gallery in Sutton library. The exhibition, showcasing the hard work and achievements of our students will be on show from Tuesday 7th June to Thursday 16th June.
